the Court's decision in United States v. Jones, 529 U.S. 848, 858 (2000), which held that the government's installation of a GPS device on a vehicle constituted a search under the Fourth Amendment.

The Court also noted that the government's use of the GPS device was not a one-time search, but rather a continuous monitoring of the vehicle's movements.

The Court further stated that the government's use of the GPS device was not a search under the Fourth Amendment because it did not involve a physical intrusion into the vehicle.

THIS SUMMONS IS DIRECTED TO ~~VIRGIN ATLANTIC AIRLINE~~ (Defendant's name)
~~① RICHARD CHARLES NICHOLS BRANSON~~
~~③ SHAI WISE (C.G.) B.O~~

You are being sued. The Plaintiff(s) named above has started a lawsuit against you. A copy of the Plaintiff's Complaint filed against you is attached to this Summons and the original Complaint has been filed in the Court

YOU MUST ACT PROMPTLY TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS.

1. You must respond to this lawsuit in writing within 20 days.

If you do not respond, the Court may decide the case against you and award the Plaintiff everything asked for in the Complaint. You will also lose the opportunity to tell your side of the story. You must respond to this lawsuit in writing even if you expect to resolve this matter with the Plaintiff. If you need more time to respond, you may request an extension of time in writing from the Court.

2. How to Respond.

To respond to this lawsuit, you must file a written response with the Court and mail a copy to the Plaintiff's attorney (or the Plaintiff, if unrepresented). You can do this by:

a) Filing your signed original response with the Clerk's Office for Civil Business, Court (address), by mail, in person, or electronically through the web portal www.eFileMA.com if the Complaint was e-filed through that portal, AND

b) Delivering or mailing a copy of your response to the Plaintiff's attorney/Plaintiff at the following address:

3. What to Include in Your Response.

An "Answer" is one type of response to a Complaint. Your Answer must state whether you agree or disagree with the fact(s) alleged in each paragraph of the Complaint. Some defenses, called affirmative defenses, must be stated in your Answer or you may lose your right to use them in Court. If you have any claims against the Plaintiff (referred to as "counterclaims") that are based on the same facts or transaction described in the Complaint, then you must include those claims in your Answer. Otherwise, you may lose your right to sue the Plaintiff about anything related to this lawsuit. If you want to have your case heard by a jury, you must specifically request a jury trial in your Court no more than 10 days after sending your Answer.

3. (cont.) Another way to respond to a Complaint is by filing a "Motion to Dismiss," if you believe that the Complaint is legally invalid or legally insufficient. A Motion to Dismiss must be based on one of the legal deficiencies or reasons listed under Rule 12 of the Massachusetts Rules of Civil Procedure. If you are filing a Motion to Dismiss, you must follow the filing rules for "Civil Motions in Superior Court," available at:
